“The Lord will bestow his bounty, and our earth shall yield its increase.” (Ps 85:13) This short text is our Communion Antiphon. The Church chooses these short verses for the entrance and for communion to connect the meaning of the readings and the liturgical setting. As we begin Advent this Sunday, we’ll be giving these Communion Antiphons greater prominence (as in years past). These texts can provide insight into the Church’s invitation in this liturgy as we begin this time of preparation.

During this time of waiting we hearken back to the people of Israel who heard the prophets speak down through the long centuries. They heard God’s promises, they saw His power, and at times they were faithful, and at times they were not. Imagine gazing out over a snow-covered field and being told that a great harvest was coming! You might look out and think, “not very likely, and not very soon.”

Sr. Jacqueline will be leading us in an Advent Mini-Mission on the prophecies fulfilled in Jesus! There are two times, it will be the same material each time, so pick one! This coming Thursday, Dec. 7 we’ll be at St. Al’s at 7 pm, and the week after that on Wednesday, Dec. 13, we’ll be at St. Anne’s at 6 pm. The bulletin insert has the details.

Along with the shifts in the liturgy, as it gets simpler and quieter during these weeks of preparation, Advent is a rich and special time for prayer. Please make use of some of our Advent resources: the Magnificat Advent Companion (many copies are stacked up at the entrances), as well as the online program, The Best Advent Ever: BestAdventEver.com

Please note the upcoming Penance Services. Also, Friday, Dec. 8th is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, a Holy Day of Obligation, and our patronal feast as a country! There will be 4 Masses, the schedule is to the left. A week from Monday we celebrate another Marian Feast, Our Lady of Guadalupe. Mass is at 7 pm, Dec. 11 followed by a potluck.

This Friday we have a powerful opportunity for our Fire-side. Fr. Brian Gerber will share his journey of recovery in the aftermath of struggling with a gambling addiction.

I hope you enjoy our St. Al’s newsletter included in this bulletin. You should have gotten one in the mail you’re a registered parishioner, but we wanted everyone to get a copy!

St. Al’s depends on the support of our parishioners, but also very significantly our alumni and other supporters. If you’re a graduating senior, consider becoming part of the Senior Class Gift. Contact Carly Joseph, Alexis Dani, Jacob Loew, or Husam Sweidan to get more information.

This weekend I’m leading the Wise Men’s Retreat at Marygrove Retreat Center, as I have for several years. Please pray for all the men on retreat and for me! On Monday and Tuesday morning I’m going to get out to do a little deer hunting with my dad, with our muzzleloaders!

God Bless, Fr. Ben

Do you or does someone you love struggle with addiction?

Along with prayer, Confession, Eucharist, and spiritual counsel, our faith encourages us to seek tested healing resources, among them many good 12-step programs.
